

QR Code Link to This Post Hi. Do you need infant care for your baby while you work or go to school? Well, on here for you if you do!

I have been watching children since I can remember. I currently watch my friends baby a few times a week while she goes to school. And I just love doing it.

So, I figured I would see if anyone else needed care.

I live in a beautiful city, in a great and safe area. My own home.

Just me. No live in boyfriend or such. Lol. No children of my own. And yes, I am a female. In my mid 30's.

I have everything already to care for an infant, because I currently already do so.

But, I was hoping to make it more of a daily gig.

I have a swing, bouncers, playpen, bassinet, high chair, feeding seat, rockers, crib, bottles and much more...literally everything to care for a newborn/infant.

I just prefer this age range, because I already have the needed things to care for this age range. Honestly don't have much to care for a toddler.

I am home all day. So, if you need me earlier or later, or even overnight that's totally fine.

My home is really clean (no bugs or such). I'm a non smoker. No drugs. Pets are present. There are cats in home and a cute guinea pig, so if your child is allergic or afraid...my home and my care probably won't be suitable. ðŹ“

No criminal record. Great personality. Very loving. Gentle and caring.

I don't mind diaper changes or formula making or such.

I'm going to be honest, I'm not sure what to offer for payments, I guess it all depends on how many days you need me and how long. I don't mind working with you, if you need it.

You can pay daily or weekly.

I do NOT accept vouchers from the state. I do apologize if this may cause any inconvenience for you.

I ask that you provide formula or breast milk or such. Also diapers and any medications or such.

I always have diapers here for my friends baby, so if they wear the same size, I don't mind using them if it saves you the hassle.

I will abide by your schedules for feeding and sleeping arrangements. As I don't want the baby to get off course. That wouldn't be good. I don't have a driver's license, so I will have to rely on you for a valid ID. I will drop off and pick up the baby as you must. The city of Cleveland, which borders Cleveland and Fairview, is near Rt 2, a 200 ft. east, and west of the city. If you have any questions or want to visit to set up a time, such to visit and possibly discuss the watching your child, I know that you really love your child. I want to know your child, and I will be able to leave you a message and if you're busy with teaching and other calling, I will be on my way.

Please don't message me offering me services or anything that has nothing to do with childcare*

Thank!!
