QR Code Link to This Post Looking for a new home for my two cats, Buddy and Bella. Buddy, white and black, is around 10 years old, is fixed but not declawed (he doesn't mind getting his nails cut). Bella, cream, is around 8 years old, is fixed and is declawed in front. I have had them since they were babies and need to be re-homed together as they have never been separated. Buddy loves to cuddle, Bella can be a little skiddish until she warms up to you. I have a 5-year-old and they are both fine around him. I would like to see them go to a home where they have more room to run around.
