QR Code Link to This Post It hurts my heart to be posting this but I am a single mom of two small children and just can't afford nor give her the care she requires so I am looking for a home for my pit-bull, she is the SWEETEST girl you will ever meet, she is about 2 years old, kennel trained, knows basic commands, the best cuddle dog ever. You could not ask for a better dog. however, she is very protective. I don't know if she is good with other dogs because I have not had another dog, same thing goes with cats, she does have a lot of energy but calms down quickly. I guarantee she will be your best friend immediately. please email me with any questions and I will send pictures when requested. There is a re-homing fee, I want to make sure she will be taken care of. Thank!
