QR Code Link to This Post These 2 pups went missing around 4 or 5am from the Briarcliffe neighborhood when my dad let them out to use the bathroom before he headed to work. They honestly could be anywhere right now. The tan dog is an older dog (40-50ish pounds) and may be skittish around strangers. The pit bull (technically a mix-80 pounds) has a lot of anxiety and more than likely will bark nonstop. She's never been aggressive, but her barking is very intimidating. I can't say if they will be together or not, but I pray they are. If you see them, please message me. It maybe best to not chase them, but to have a lot of patience if you are willing to try to keep them.
