QR Code Link to This Post we have a well trained LGD to rehome Housebroken, leash trained, rides well in car and is UTD on all vet care/shots, etc. This dog understands his work and can be trusted with almost any animal. He is very good with poultry and goats. Does not bother any cat. Can trust him with your smaller family pets. Does not jump or climb fencing. Stays within his designated working area if fencing is not available. Would only leave the yard if some situation depended on his taking extreme proactive actions to protect his family, territory and your livestock. We are moving away from the farm and need to find a good home for him where he can continue being the LGD he has always been.

Only $150 to the right home where LGD services can be.
