We can discuss me writing words to your melody once we complete a full production song with you writing music to my lyric. I'm looking for a music writer (composer) who has his or her chops down for writing today's contemporary music, but is not so hot at writing lyrics. I need a composer in touch with today's pop sound as shown on the Billboard Hot 100. Click on the following link to check out a few of my songs that were critiqued by labels and publishers with positive feedback on the lyrics...<https://soundcloud.com/user-711854246> ...If you've been around the music biz for a while, and realize what a bitch it can be making it over the top to success as a songwriter, and are willing to put in the time and effort needed to succeed, hit me back here with a sample of your full production song work (a completed song, front to back) and we'll see if we're compatible. I write lyrics for the few decent genres that remain on the Billboard Hot 100 Chart. Genres such as, but not limited to the following links...<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pbliIC6zN68><https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5gBeLN2Jkng...>

This next link is to just one of several sources for industry listings I use when making song submissions. Check out the Pop, Rock and Adult Contemporary genres, and you'll see just how high the bar is set. <http://www.taxi.com/industry.php>

I have fresh new lyrics waiting for your music to be made into hits. This will be a 50/50 collaboration...NOT A WORK FOR!
