health's, they are both home trained and are great with kids and family, just weigh about 5.0lbs now. My life has gotten very busy and I'm not able to give them the attention that they expect from me so i need to let go of them,, I was putting them here so to see if I could find a good loving and forever home for them because what matter to me is a good and caring home for the puppies they are very healthy, playful dogs well dewormed and vaccinated puppies! I'm willing to deliver to the right home or meet part way, asking a RE-homing fee of includes all toys, travel cage and regular cage setup. Meet my little pals, if not for sudden extreme lifestyle changes and uncertain future on my part I can promise you that I would never let these darlings go..but I have no choice. So, I can tell you the female loves to be all I we you, looking at everything and seeing whatever is new, whoever is around etc Just female is nosy miss! The male IS A bit more Stand-offish, but IS always watching What she IS.
