QR Code Link to This Post A fully Licensed Massage Therapist with a decade of Good practice is willing to "help" out whomever may be in need for a good healing session. I have "good" rates, but "due to certain circumstances" whether its beyond my control or not, I normally charge up to $25 for a 1/2 hour session, $50 for a full hour session, or even $75 for a 1 1/2 hour session, but I am going back to at least $40 an hour unless it is a "outcall" than it is around $50 an hour, again. For anyone whom may be seriously willing to give this a try, it is highly encouraged.

I have also been known to have good hands. Plus, I would only take cash. Thank you for your patronage.
