QR Code Link to This Post Hello Fellow Craigslisters,

I'm a cool drama free person. I am driving my newer SUV towards Irvine Friday this week, so if you would like a ride wouldn't mind some company for carpool and some help with gas. I am willing to go a little out of my way but not too far and think $30/person is fair considering I will be your personal chauffeur. If your interested reply and I will be sure to get back to you.

Thank you for the consideration, I look forward to riding with you.
