QR Code Link to This Post I am looking for an attractive, athletic, or slim, intelligent female roommate and girlfriend. I am not looking for just a roommate, as I am beyond that type of arrangement, been there, done that. Rent is negotiable, depending on what you can afford. I live in a very nice and spacious one bedroom, one bath apartment, with an air conditioner, wood burning gas fireplace, hardwood floors, a beautiful patio, dual bathroom sinks, plenty of closet space, some storage, a cal king bed, completely furnished, but could make room for some nice extra touches, also. It's in a very nice area, near Bundy a half a block south of Wilshire, walking distance to good restaurants, cafes, bars, stores, plus a mile from the 405 and 10 fwys and very close to the Santa Monica border. I am good-looking, athletic, fit, intelligent, educated, have a good sense of humor and many interests. I am fifty, but take care of myself and look good for my age. I usually date younger, but am open to any age and race, as long as you are youthful in appearance and relatively fit. I am a gentleman, a nice guy, but lead a youthful, active lifestyle, am fun to be with. I am very expressive, romantic, affectionate, loving, passionate and monogamous. I am also very clean, disease free, discreet, drink in moderation, a little 420 now and then, am skilled at giving a woman pleasure, but I also love and respect women. I just recently moved in here and changed careers, so someone who has or earns her own money is important, although as I said, I am a gentleman. I do have one very sweet, well-behaved female golden retriever that lives with me also. So if interested, get back to me with your pics and info. I will send you my pics & number. I'm Rick and I look forward to getting to know.
