QR Code Link to This Post We purchased this authentic 19th Century French dining table directly from an antiques importer in Atlanta, GA several years ago. As you can see, it has a beautiful parquet top. As a "refractory" table, there are two leaves that slide out from beneath the top, expanding it's size - perfect for your holiday guests!

The top is not perfect, but still in remarkably good shape for it's age. A brown wax goes a long way toward maintaining a rich luster. The price is very reasonable. You'll find similar dining tables at dealers or online (.e.g., 1stdibs.com) that are more than double this price.

Dimensions:

Top: 35" x 48"

Top Extended: 35" x 78"

Distance between Legs (long side): 38" at most narrow point.

Distance between Legs (short side):"
