QR Code Link to This Post This Saturday myself and Wanderlust Event Designs are hosting a Holiday Art Pop-Up Event featuring my fiber art (High Tied Macrame) at VP Salon Organic in Pasadena. The musician we were planning on having play can no longer make it so we are looking for someone to play a casual acoustic set for us! The event is from 7-10, so we're looking for someone to play like an hour set somewhere in there although we are open to longer or shorter seeing as this is super last minute! The event will feature fine and functional art, holiday decor, a festive photo booth, free signature holiday cocktails and treats! Unfortunately, we don't have much compensation to offer you (we're all artists here) :/ but there will be free drinks + you are welcome and encouraged to invite and bring guests, play original music, promote yourself as much as you want, sell CDs, plus we will take photos that you are welcome to use. Message me if you're interested and we can potentially work out a small payment as well. Check out my Instagram @hightiedmacrame or my website www.hightiedmacrame.com to get a feel of it and message me a link to your stuff if you're interested! Thanks so!
