QR Code Link to This Post This is Treasure. She's a 2yr old mastiff lab mix. Treasure's previous owner passed away. She was in the care of his son until he eventually couldn't care for her anymore either. What is keeping her from finding a hopefully permanent home too spend the rest of her days is she can be very food aggressive with other dogs. She's very sweet and lovable but also is a great guard dog. Once introduced to her she will cover you in kisses. Jump in the yard uninvited and she'll likely take a chunk outta someone's behind. If anyone is looking for a friend and companion to share walks and sandwiches with she's an awesome girl. She loves kids and is good with other dogs as long as food and treats aren't involved. She was an inside/outside dog she stayed in backyard and had bed on back porch of her previous owner and came in at night. Since bringing her to my house she's had to be outside in a kennel to keep her separate from other dogs. I'm only asking a $90 adoption fee. I've had her several months the previous owner son had intended to get her back but he isn't able to and I can't afford to keep taking care of her. She will need to get current vaccines done.
