QR Code Link to This Post Car key replacement can be handled several different ways.

You can go to the dealership,
Do it yourself, or you can call a locksmith.
Each one of these options has its own pros and cons.
Dealerships will be the most expensive, but are trustworthy.
The do it yourself option will be the cheapest, but it relies on your ability and the quality of the products you purchase.
Locksmiths are a nice middle ground of price and trust.
