

Lost everything please help (West cleveland)

hide this posting

uni

Location Ohio https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-789495-z

QR Code Link to This Post Hi i have 4 children and a teen brother i need to get christmas gifts for i dont have money to afford christmas and i dont want to them to think they was bad thats why they dobt get anything when they was great this year and i dint want to explain the truth about santa i feel really worthless right now and embarresed asking my neighborhood and community for help this year i lost everything in a house fire a few months ago now i found a hone and found out i was scammed so now being asked to move again so now im going through the courts and have a open investigation going trying to find the lady that took my rent and deposit and wasnt the owner now im stuck and my kids and brother will possibly not have anything under the christmas tree this year please find it in your heart and contact me if you can help me out this holiday it will be gladly appreciated i am not greedy and im not picky we do not have anything right now no furniture and no stove no winter school clothes or my brother doesnt have any clothes boits or even a coat i can use just about anything thanks and god bless you dont firget to pray for my family in these hard

