QR Code Link to This Post Cat-- gray, long-haired, fluffy-looking, large-- missing from N.W. 24th Avenue and N.W. Quimby Street, Portland, Oregon. Last seen December 05, 2012.

He has been missing for five years now, but I am still hoping for his return.

His name is Niles. He is very shy, due to his feral background, so he won't let you get too close to him.

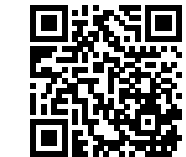

Niles is loved and deeply missed by his human companion of five years, and by his feline mother and brother, who are his best friends.

If you think you may have seen him, or if you might know something about what happened to him, please call or send an email reply.

Thank you very much for your help.
