We are launching an magazine (online and traditional) with a focus on entrepreneurs. We are looking for contributors for our inaugural issue and for online content.

Here are some ideas of the type of content we are looking for:

- Personal successes of failures and what you've learned from those endeavors
- Tips for entrepreneurs
- Reviews of products/services/tech that may help entrepreneurs
- Entrepreneur "Hacks"
- Dealing with difficult clients
- Updating you product(s)
- Overcoming emotional and/or financial obstacles
- How to create a positive work environment for yourself
- When to reach out for help for your business and when to do it yourself
- Office Decor tips
- Balancing family and business
- Experiences working with other entrepreneurs
- Getting support while launching your business
- Do's and Don'ts

submissions must be in by December 31, 2017. Any submissions after that date will still be considered for online only publishing and future issues of the magazine.

For the launch of our website and the inaugural issue, inclusions will be unpaid. We are trying to gather as much great content as possible for the launch of both in early 2018 (January or February). Ultimately, we are looking to put together a team of contributors with an opportunity for compensation.

We will have entrepreneur spotlights online and in the magazine. Submissions of any kind will automatically put you in the running for a potential spotlight on our site, on our social media, and in the magazine.
