Anyone can rent here; it is NOT just open to students, though it is ideal for students. The minimum lease term would be January-September 2018, but if you want to stay for longer, the landlord is typically very flexible. Here are some of the highlights of the property:

- Wonderful landlord (the warmest and best I've ever had; but it's very important that you always pay rent on time)
- Fully furnished private apartment
- Private entrance
- Very spacious
- Private bathroom
- Small, private kitchen with refrigerator and freezer
- Ample storage space
- Built in closet
- Shared washer
- Free parking
- Peaceful and lush neighborhood
- Extremely convenient to UNC campus
