QR Code Link to This Post If you're dedicated thespian, we're interested in you. We are a network of business consultants with a project that is perfect for someone with acting or musical theater experience. Let your passion as a thespian help generate impressive part-time income for you. We will provide training and support and most thespians will pick this up very quickly. Work hours are in the mornings and estimated to be 10 hours a week. You can work from home. Compensation is competitive and achievable bonuses will bring earnings to over $20 and hour. This work is structured to provide sideline income that fuels your passion for the stage.

If interested please do two things:

1. email your resume (including your theater experience) as soon as possible, a typed list of your credits is fine - it's more important that you reply asap with something, than to spend a week honing your CV, etc.
2. In your email, please let us know your availability for 10 hours a week between 9am-12pm, and the best time to call you for a phone interview (the sooner the better).

We will get back to each person who replies in this manner. Thank you and break a leg!
