QR Code Link to This Post I have 8 baby hamsters available for new homes. They have been held since they were 2 weeks old by my kids. I am asking a small rehoming fee of ten dollars each in hope that they go to a loving family and not be used as food. You would be getting just the hamster. I also have 2 small cages available for sale asking $20 each will include some food/bedding, food tray, wheel and water bottle. Please be serious about contacting me and follow through if you do. I understand plans change but be kind in your responses. Thank you and Happy Holidays! Pictures Provided upon request. If this post is still up then they are still available.
