QR Code Link to This Post I have 1 room to rent in my apartment close to 108th and Maple. Rent will be $409 per month, and other utilities will be about $125 per month. My new roommate will have access to the common areas of the apartment, living room, kitchen and bathroom. Ideally, I'm looking for someone to stay around six months and not be to noisy. I am a Christian and would like someone like-minded. If this sounds like it might suit you, contact me at
