IMPORTANT: The rumors of my being a cantankerous, eccentric, crazy lady are totally unverified and based on anonymous sources. LOL! ðŸ˜Š Actually, I am humbled to have been told that I am a joy to work with and described as a person who treats all those who care for me with integrity and the same heartfelt respect and appreciation as they have always shown me.

I am a 49-year-old woman of faith, who's been forced to learn how to live life from a wheelchair for over 6 years now. I went from a professional in upper management, actively involved in charity work, community theater, our church fine arts and volunteering to fully disabled, and having to depend on the kindness of others. I have been blessed to have some of the most amazing angels who have cared for me during this time. Due to a family emergency, one of my earth angels is off to rescue another, so I have an immediate opening on my awesome 3 person PCA team. If you are looking for a part-time position that requires someone with a positive attitude, strong work ethic, provides compassionate care, is reliable, trustworthy and has a warm, joyful personality, then you'll fit right in so please contact me today. I am hoping to make a decision fairly quickly due to the immediate nature of my need.
