QR Code Link to This Post Hello, my name is Joe Stone and I am a guitarist who performs and gives guitar lessons in the Baltimore area. I can help you to play music you truly love. I can also help you to acquire skills that will help you to compose and improvise. Whatever your musical goals, I can help you achieve them. Lessons can be at your home or mine (there is no charge for travel if you live in the immediate Baltimore area). I offer beginner through advanced instruction. Students aged six and up are welcome. I also offer ukulele lessons.

If you are interested in scheduling a lesson, please visit my website for my fee and contact information: joestoneguitar.com. I am happy to provide student.
