Are you looking to finally write that book? Do you have a business you want to rank higher in Google? Could you use help getting into writing or blogging?

Well, I'm a writer by heart and an SEO writer by skill. I need some new housing, so I figured I'd offer my skills in exchange for a rental.

I'm a 31-year-old woman looking for a nice place with 2-3 bedrooms so I can cozy down with my kiddos. In exchange for my rental, I would be happy to offer my writing skills. But only with a respectable person who has integrity (perverts can expect a prompt punch to the face ;-)).

This whole exchange sounds like a long shot, but I believe that the perfect place is out there waiting for me. And what easier way to manifest than Craigslist? ;-)
