Being white in color, there are some marks here and there, a little worn wood. I'm taking a magic eraser to it slowly and it's really cleaning and brightening up! I never made a habit of cleaning our beds! lol

I couldn't find the exact model, but I've included a picture of the style from Pottery Barn, which I believe is closest to the Catalina. Ours does not have fancy legs, just straight. Otherwise, I believe it's the same.

Used by my daughter for 5 years, smoke/pet free home.

Trundle has knobs on sides and can be pulled out from either bed side.

Dimensions are as follows:

-Head board 43' high, Foot board 33' high, width 42'

-Full length of bed about 80'

Trundle 75'

Cash only please.

Disassembled, ready to go! Pick up in Savage, we will help you load.

Trundle is one large piece, does not disassemble. There is a pottery barn mattress for the trundle that we will include if you'd like. Clean, rarely used.

Thanks for!!
