QR Code Link to This Post Beautiful, friendly, smart and talkative female cockatoo looking for her forever home. My darling little girl needs a loving environment and lots of playful attention. She is about 8 years old and deserves a home where she will receive daily positive attention. She loves to be out of her cage and interact with her caregiver.. She will probably bond with just one person. She is very smart and loves to talk, dance, sing and just show off and be silly. She even laughs! Her name is Lil' Bit and she can be very jealous if you do not pay enough attention to her - such as talking on the phone in her presence or having company and ignoring her. Lil' Bit comes with lots of toys, a play stand and a very large cage.

Rehoming fee applies; a cockatoo is not a cheap bird.

If you are the right person you and Lil' Bit will have many enjoyable years together. Text/call for more info and to come and meet.
