1871 was the year of the Great Chicago Fire and Haeger was, in some way, a part of the restoration process by shipping bricks for rebuilding the city.

Edmond H. Haeger took over where David H. left off in 1900 but brought new vision to the firm and in 1914, the firm started producing artware pottery.

From 1950 to 1954, Royal made his history with the Royal Air Force. (I'm assuming you're correct).

This centuries old firm has always been blessed with family throughout its history and continues to make art and utilitarian pottery today!
