Haeger Pottery:

In 1871, David H. Haeger began Haeger Pottery in Dundee Illinois.

1871 was the year of the Great Chicago Fire and Haeger was, in some way, a part of the restoration process by shipping bricks for rebuilding the city.

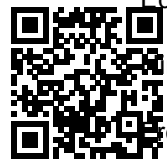

Edmond H. Haeger took over where David H. left off in 1900 but brought new vision to the firm and in 1914 the firm started producing artware pottery.

During Royal Delft, Hickman, and a design that would be the basis for the firm's from 1914 to 1924 Royal Delft Pottery was the basis for the firm in 1924 (Royal Delft Pottery was the basis for the firm in 1924).

This century old firm has always been blessed with family throughout its history and continues to make art and utilitarian pottery today!
