QR Code Link to This Post Looking for some additional cash this holiday season? We're a market research firm conducting research in a local Grocery store, and we need someone to take some product photos in the store for us.

Non-professional photography is more than acceptable - iPhone or other high end smart phone photos are perfectly fine. We expect it should only take about 10-15 minutes total in the store. Paypal, Venmo, or Squarecash payment options are all available.

Please note: We typically receive multiple responses to these postings, so we will prioritize anyone who responds quickly and has immediate availability to take photos.!
