QR Code Link to This Post I am looking for someone to foster Petunia for January to March while I am traveling. She's sweet and athletic, loves to hike and jog and cuddle, is a well trained 30 pound chihuahua pit mix. If you fall in love with her there is a possibility you could keep her longer. :) She does best with women and needs to go to an experienced dog owner. Message me if you're interested and we can talk more. I could provide her food. If you send me a photo that would be great because as an intuitive healer I can read your energy and sense if it could be a good fit. :)
