QR Code Link to This Post Adorable Petunia loves to hike for miles, go for daily jogs and cuddle all night long. Might she be your new companion?

She is an intelligent, well trained, house broken, 30 pound chihuahua pit mix. She is quite a character -- she will let you dress her up, meditate with you and communicate when she needs something.

I am going to be traveling all winter so am looking for someone to foster her asap through March and there is a possibility of you keeping her longer if you two bond, as I anticipate future travels through the year.

She needs to go to a home without kids, and to an experienced dog owner who understands how to be a kind yet firm leader. She prefers women.

Message me if you're interested and we can talk more. If youd send me a photo that would be great because as an intuitive healer I can read your energy and sense if it could be a good fit.
