QR Code Link to This Post I have seen several post on here from people asking for frer reptiles. i know a couple of them being flippers. they take your free reptile and then resale it later for profit. im willing to take any unwanted reptiles and give them a good home. i have over 20 years experience and helped with a REAL reptile rescue until the owner had health issues and had to go out of business. reptiles are my passion. i have owned everything from cobras to your basic corn snakes. feel free to give me a text if u have any reptiles that need a good forever home. text me
