QR Code Link to This Post Hi! My daughter is wanting a guitar for Christmas. She is 15 and said she wants to join a band one day lol. So this mom is going to help her dream come true! If I trade for this then I can pay for her lessons! Woohoo!

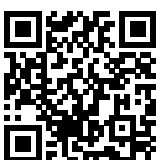

The guitar and dartboard are her only request lol.

I am not asking for a FREE one....I will trade things I have! I can send a list of my stuff.

No crude responses please. I will only meet in a public spot..or police station.

Oh she wants the wood acoustic one.... with a hard style case if you have it. ( pictures are what she showed me from online...just to give you a general idea)

Thanks and Merry!
