QR Code Link to This Post Professional driver that's not an airplane fan so I drive from Chicago, Illinois to Brandon, Florida for my Christmas vacation each year. I've driven it straight through the first few years probably just to prove I can drive 18-19 hours straight but kinda prefer grabbing a hotel in Chattanooga these days so not as exhausted once I get down there. Your cost would be 50% of gas, any food/drinks ya consume and 50% of my hotel room or your own room. Can get your own room or we could split a room to save a few bucks. Don't have room for large things.

Depart Chicago: Wednesday 12/20 or Thursday 12/21
Arrive Brandon: Thursday 12/21 or Friday 12/22

Depart Brandon: Thursday 12/28 or Friday 12/29
Arrive Chicago: Friday 12/29 or Saturday 12/30

Don't go back to work till 01/02/18 but kinda wanna be back by 12/29 or 12/30 so 2-3 day weekend to recoup from vacation before heading back to work.

Pull up MapQuest and route Chicago to Brandon, Florida and see if my route 65/South, 24/East, 75/South, 60/East could work for ya.

Send me the following if ya think my route could work out for ya...

- 1) Change the subject of your email to "Florida Trip"
- 2) What city do you need to get to?
- 3) One way or round trip?
- 4) Just yourself going? Any animals?

How many people would you like to go with?
 Does anyone else work for you?
 Plans you might get there? (I don't want to know if you have a car or not, but I can bring a car with me if you don't fall through)
 Anything else you wanna ask me? (I can bring a car with me if you don't fall through) etc...

- 9) If you wish to swap pics I'm fine with that.
